

7 Mona Lane, Brunswick Heads

UNDER APPLICATION : 7 Mona Lane, Brunswick Heads

This property is in the prime location, Sitting on the edge of the Brunswick River.

No. 7 Mona Lane is an iconic house built in 1970 and it retains many of the original features from that era.

The kitchen and dining areas lead through to the enclosed sunroom, with the most stunning views of the gardens and the river, this space is the perfect spot to relax and enjoy the winter sun. Leading back inside is the living room (with air conditioning), rumpus room/home office, two bedrooms and a bathroom featuring a bath with shower and a second separate shower.

Upstairs is the third bedroom that looks above and beyond the rest of the house, complete with windows on two sides, making the most of the spectacular views of the river and the Memorial Park.

Most of the rooms in the house have uninterrupted water views, and for anyone who loves to be out on the water, access is metres away.

The tandem garage is the perfect storage space for two cars and or boats, kayaks, stand-up paddle boards or surfboards, It provides easy access to the back yard with both front and back roller doors.

The backyard is the best spot for anyone who loves to be outside soaking up the sun with a little gardening or playing with the kids outside with the fully fenced rear yard or just grab a beach chair, relax and enjoy the outlook.
