

70-72 Dalley St, Mullumbimby

Rare Commercial Property

Commercial opportunities in Mullumbimby are few and far between. This one is a beauty, solid old single level brick building with great tenants. Out the back there is plenty of room to move, with ample parking. Good frontage onto Dalley Street for exposure and presence. The rear lane access is vital for operating a business, it also provides potential for further development of the property. A preliminary town planning report is available for prospective investors. It's a great location in the centre of town, close to the post office and other key service providers. Call Todd now.
